

Energy and Building Performance Analyst

Part-time position | Madison, WI

You can create a healthier future, a cleaner environment, and thriving, resilient economy.

Seventhwave seeks candidates to work between 10 and 30 hours per week on energy efficiency research and technical consulting projects, largely in the built environment.

As part of our team, you will help us deliver trusted expertise for bold energy leadership. Seventhwave advances powerful strategies for real energy impacts through engineering, education and research. Our solutions come from using different perspectives to yield uncommon results. We offer an innovative path to real progress for our partners. Because how we use energy matters.

Working at Seventhwave exposes you to experts leading our transition to a clean energy economy. You will work on interesting projects that illuminate new paths to deep energy savings in buildings. You will also enrich your professional network. And our work culture emphasizes curiosity, kindness and high standards.

This is a limited-term position expected to end in May, 2018 with the possibility of extending through August, 2018.

Minimum compensation: $17/hour, depending on qualifications.
